1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 1-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Rajski et al (2006/0041814).

As per claims 1-8, Rajski et al disclose a method of developing a response compactor comprising:

Adding at least two columns to a compactor matrix for each circuit output that can produce an unknown logic value at the same time. (See paragraphs (0066)-(0068)).

As per claims 9-15 and 17-18, these claims are rejected under similar rationale as set forth in claims 1-8.

As per claim 16, Rajski et al disclose a response compactor comprising:

A plurality of exclusive OR gates arranged to handle any number of scan chains with unknown logic values. (See paragraph (0048)).

As per claims 19-25, these claims are rejected under similar rationale as set forth in claims 1-8.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claim 16 is remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Mitra et al (2003/0188269) (from paragraph 4 of the office action dated on 1/12/06) as follow.

Claim 16, Mitra et al disclose a compacting circuit, comprising:

A plurality of exclusive OR gates arranged to handle any number of scan chains with unknown logic vales. (See Fig. 3 and paragraph (0016)).

5. Applicant's arguments filed on 3/13/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive because applicant argues with respect to the rejection based on Mitra, under section 103(c) that the present application and the cited application were, at the time the invention of the present application was made, owned by Intel Corporation.

Examiner: Agrees to withdrawn the 35 USC 103(a) rejection dated on 1/12/06, but, however, the rejection under 35 USC 102(e) is remain rejected because section 103(c) is not applied under 35 USC 102(e). (See MPEP section 2146).
